

Licence Check

If you're planning to hire a vehicle either in the UK or abroad you will need to show a code from today, as the paper counterpart of photocard driving licences is being replaced with a new online system.

You can check your licence by going to the following link;

www.viewdrivingrecord.service.gov.uk

Enter your licence number, National Insurance number, postcode and select "I Agree"

On the following page check your details are correct and then select

"Penalties and Disqualifications"

Your details	Vehicles you can drive	Penalties and disqualifications	Share your licence information
--------------	--	---------------------------------	--------------------------------

This will show a record of any Penalty points or disqualifications that appear on your license;

Your details	Vehicles you can drive	Penalties and disqualifications	Share your licence information
--------------	--	---------------------------------	--------------------------------

To find out more visit the penalty points and disqualifications sections.

You have
0 current penalty points

From this screen select "Share your licence information" where you will be given a code, either print or make a note of the code, the code is case sensitive, and bring it in when you come to collect your vehicle.

Get a licence check code

You can get a check code to share your driving licence information with someone else, like your employer or a car hire company. You may need to do this if you want to hire a car.

You must also give them the last 8 characters of your driving licence number.

Your code will be valid for 21 days.
